

HANCOCK SENIOR Leadership

Joint program of the Hancock County Agency on Aging and the Findlay•Hancock County Chamber of Commerce

Join the Hancock Senior Leadership Class of 2011

September 13 – November 8

Statement of Purpose:

Hancock Senior Leadership (HSL) is a community awareness program cosponsored by the Hancock County Agency on Aging and Findlay•Hancock County Chamber of Commerce designed to develop informed, motivated and committed retired and semi-retired persons for Hancock County.

Statement of Cooperative Understanding:

- Retirees can offer a wealth of experience, leadership and vitality to their communities while enriching their own lives.
- Senior Leadership Programs provide seniors with knowledge of community needs, new friendships and volunteer opportunities.

Objectives:

- To develop and empower mature adults to assume new leadership roles which contribute to the well being of the community through civic engagement
- To acquaint participants with the area's assets, challenges and opportunities
- To provide a forum to broaden mature adult citizens' knowledge of the community through presentations, discussions and visits in a series of eight 6-hour sessions
- To provide an opportunity to meet new friends who share the same intellectual curiosity and commitment to our community

Schedule:

- Hancock Senior Leadership class will meet weekly for nine weeks, each Tuesday from 9:00 AM to 3:30 PM beginning September 13, 2011 through November 8, 2011.

Topics include:

- Orientation and History of Hancock County
- Energizing the Area Economy
- New Challenges & Directions in Public Education
- Social Services
- Justice & Safety
- Arts & Recreation
- Local Government: Citizen Synergy
- Health Care
